LIFTSHOP  life with style

September 2013

News from the most awarded lift company in Australia

This year Lift Shop has once again been involved with some remarkable projects, and we're very proud of the installations that have been completed... with many more still in progress.

Our lifts continue to be in high demand - for both their features and style. We increasingly find that the technology and safety features are a big draw card, but of course, customers also love the customisation possibilities, which are endless. Then there's the quality, which is unbeatable - there's just nothing else quite like it, so don't be fooled.

It continues to give us great pleasure to share some of our most recently celebrated projects with you and this month we feature:

Eureka - Bridge Hotel Ballarat

Lift Shop struck gold when we installed our Maxi FreedomLift with anodised aluminium and glass shaft into the recently refurbished Bridge Hotel. As well as now having a 400kg limited mobility access lift between floors, the striking lift has become a focus in the bar area and provides a beautiful combination of modern and rustic materials...

Krslovic Display - Homeworld

Krslovic Homes was one of the many high end builders to establish a new display home at the latest Homeworld Exhibition Village at Kellyville. Understanding the growing trend that home lifts has become, Krslovic Homes felt that it was essential that their new display must include a lift, we agreed...

Exclusive Quality Development by CKP Constructions

Beachside Bliss

When Lift Shop was approached at the very beginning of the design stage for a proposed development being planned at the top of a hill in Bulimba/Balmoral, it was clear that there were many access issues to be accommodated...

Capital Job

Demand for our popular P1 extends everywhere, including the nation's capital ACT. In this instance, the Architect had a preference for the outside located limited mobility access platform to match the colour scheme of the unit development, especially the grey window colour...

Another Happy Customer

In central west New South Wales town of Mudgee, the Mid-Western Recycling Waste Facility needed to provide access between levels for one of its dedicated staff – once again the held in stock P2 was the perfect quick fix...
