News from the award winning leader

Lift Shop continues to be involved with some remarkable projects, and we're very proud of the installations that have been completed... with many more still in progress.

Our lifts continue to be in high demand - for both their features and style. We increasingly find that the technology and safety features are a big draw card, but importantly, customers love the design flexibility. Then there's the quality, which is unbeatable - there's just nothing else quite like it.

It continues to give us great pleasure to share some of our most recently celebrated projects with you and this month we feature:

Mooloolaba Esplanade

An upgrade to an existing office building in Mooloolaba required an access solution with a small footprint, including a very low ceiling height of 2230mm at the basement...

Armani

Like all successful brands, Armani places huge importance on style consistency, including the fitout of showrooms. So when the new showroom in the Grand Hyatt, Collins Street, Melbourne..

Making a Statement

With strong architectural details both inside and out at this riverside home in Applecross, the FreedomLift and glass shaft is just another one of them. Taking pride of place in the entrance hallway...

Could Not Do Without

For a project of this magnitude, care and attention to detail was paramount. As such, it was not surprising that it took 3 years from first discussions till starting on site for the installation...
