News from the award winning leader

Lift Shop continues to be involved with some remarkable projects, and we're very proud of the installations that have been completed... with many more still in progress.

Our lifts continue to be in high demand - for both their features and style. We increasingly find that the technology and safety features are a big draw card, but importantly, customers love the design flexibility. Then there's the quality, which is unbeatable - there's just nothing else quite like it.

It continues to give us great pleasure to share some of our most recently celebrated projects with you and this month we feature:

Beverly Hills

With absolutely no compromise on the finishes or selections for this palatial new home in LA's Beverly Hills, it was only fitting that our award winning Supermec...
